JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER III BOOSTS FUND DRIVE; BUILDERS PREPARE TO REMODEL NEW CLUBHOUSE

A $5,000 contribution from John D. Rockefeller gave the Memorial Building Fund Drive a big boost to near the $250,000 mark this week as builders prepared to start work on remodeling the Memorial Press Center at 35 East 39th Street.

In announcing the largest single contribution to the Building Fund in several months, President J. CLIFFORD STARK said, "Mr. Rockefeller's generous gift was intended to give a final push to the Fund Drive to enable the Club to meet the heavy expenses of remodeling, furnishing and equipping the new Clubhouse without delay."

Accompanying his check to President STARK was a letter from Mr. Rockefeller in which he stated, "As the importance of New York City's international position increases, it is essential that professional people of different nationalities have opportunities of getting together for informal interchange on subjects of common interest. As I understand it, the Overseas Press Club will be able more effectively to fill this very necessary role in the field of journalism with the construction of its Memorial Building.

"Under these circumstances it is a particular satisfaction to contribute toward the building fund. Herewith I enclose my check for $5,000 drawn to the order of the Overseas Press Club Memorial Fund.

"With every best wish for the success of this important project, I am, Sincerely, John D. Rockefeller III."

This contribution, President STARK said, "is especially important and appreciated at this time as we have obligated a large portion of the building fund for the actual remodeling of the building. It enables us to move on with a reasonably safe margin (Continued on Page 2) to the next big phase of furnishing and equipping the building.

"The next few weeks are important in this connection and it is hoped that Members will redouble their efforts in this period. The more successful we are in our present efforts to get a large part of the equipment and furnishings contributed, the less urgent will be our need for additional cash. This, too, is a project on which we would like the assistance of Members. (Please contact Manager James Foley for our requirements.)"

Mr. Rockefeller is the third Rockefeller brother to make a substantial contribution to the Building Fund. Earlier contributors were Nelson and Winthrop Rockefeller.

Meanwhile, the last legal formalities are being cleared away at weekend for the formal award of the construction contract. The contractor was ready to start work immediately and rush the project to completion in about four months.

William Zeckendorf, noted real estate operator and the Club's real estate adviser, whose staff developed the final plans resulting in a substantial saving in costs, again assured the Club of continued assistance and supervision on the project until its completion.

In a letter to Past President and Correspondents Fund President WILLIAM P. GRAY, Mr. Zeckendorf said, "It is a matter of great satisfaction to us to have been of some help, however small, to such a wonderful organization that has done so much for our country. Please be assured that we will continue to follow through on this project until such time as it is fully consummated."

When Sydney Gruson of the New York Times was expelled from Guatemala, NBC-TV's "Today" program reported Gruson's "in-person" story over the network before his own paper could print it. CLIFF EVANS called NBC's Mexico City bureau chief JOHN WILHELM, asked him to line up Gruson for a telephone interview. Gruson then, via long-distance phone, then told details of how he had been booted from the Central American State. And, as Gruson spoke, NBC in New York was tape-recording him for broadcast shortly thereafter ... RALPH T. HARTELL is new account executive over at Bermingham, Castleman & Pierce, Inc. ... MAIL BAG: "The AFN (American Forces Network) sent me down to Rome on one of the most enviable Army assignments of all time: to interview Ava Gardner, Lauren Bacall, Gina Lollobrigida and Ingrid Bergman. Caught all of them, and the troops in Europe have been listening to some pretty intoxicating voices." Author of that creed is BILL SAFIRE, who grudgingly admits, "What with all the added responsibility of handling the above women, the Army made me a corporal." He also notes that an OPCer named ERWIN KNOLL was recently drafted into the Army; "I'm getting out next month--he can have my job."

EDWARD L. BERNAYS spoke February 26 before the Third Annual Institute for Public Relations Directors at the University of Kansas ... Other PR news: RALPH H. MAJOR, JR., has been promoted to Director of Public Relations for Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, Inc.

RESERVATIONS POUR IN ) FOR OPC ANNUAL DINNER) BEFORE "OFFICIAL DATE")

More than 200 reservations for the Overseas Press Club's Annual Awards Dinner on Monday, March 29, have already been received by Club Headquarters. This is despite the notice in last week's Bulletin that requests for reservations should not be sent in before March 8. "While we were not officially ready to handle reservations," said Dinner executive chairman PAT LOCHRIDGE HARTWELL, "this is a most encouraging sign and one which indicates a record attendance at the Dinner."

Meanwhile, plans were being rushed to produce a red-letter event for March 29 in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. Conferences are being held currently with prospective guests speakers, and the Committee hopes to have a major announcement in the near future.

It was also pointed out by the Committee that the price for Dinner tickets are tax deductible, since the affair is held as a benefit for the Correspondents Fund and the

In view of the surprising flood of reservations already under way, the Committee urges all Members to send in their checks as soon after March 8 as possible. Fee for one Member and one guest is $10 each, while tickets for additional guests are $15 each. Sponsors tables are available at $25 per guest. Seating allocations will be made on a first-come-first-served basis as in the past.

00000000000000000000 O THE OPC BOOKSHELF

("Breakthrough on the Color Front", by Lee Nichols, Random House). There is cause for rejoicing that this book could be written. It is a detailed record of the breakup of the Jim Crow traditions of the U.S. armed forces. Today Negro troops, sailors and airmen are treated without discrimination and are completely integrated. This is certainly the most important victory over race prejudice in this country of the century. The fact that it is not only accomplished but, as here reported, overwhelmingly successful, it should speed up the destruction of other road blocks to the certain end of racial discrimination in this country. (By DICKSON HARTWELL).
